

City of Berlin Scholarship

funded by the Checkpoint Charlie Foundation
Berlin, Germany
(Effective Summer 2026)

General Information

In response to the events of September 11, 2001, the Checkpoint Charlie Foundation (CCF), Berlin (Germany) initiated a charitable campaign entitled "Berlin helps the USA" for children with parents who were either killed or whose health was permanently impaired due to the terrorist attacks. Since September 12, 2001, contributions have been received from private donors in Berlin, and also from citizens all over Germany.

Until 2028, this scholarship, in combination with already existing support programs (i.e. FAFSA, Federal Pell Grants, Federal Supplementary Educational Opportunity Grants, etc.) will cover the costs of one academic year's OR two consecutive semesters' tuition (if starting in spring) for accredited private and/or public colleges and universities in the United States (2-year and 4-year colleges/ universities) on a pro rata basis with the option of renewal for the following academic year (see: Re-application). The fund can be used only for academic purposes that will lead to an associate's degree, Bachelor's and Master's degrees, or for PhD candidates.

Conditions of Eligibility

Candidates must be children who were born after 1986 and who lost one or both parents during the terrorist attacks in New York and Washington, DC. Of course this also refers to those whose parents lost their lives as passengers and crew of American Airlines 11 (WTC 1), United Airlines 175 (WTC 2), American Airlines 77 (Pentagon), and United Airlines 93 (crash in Shanksville, PA), as well as those whose parents lost their lives as rescue workers such as firemen and women, policemen and women, and other members of recovery and rescue organizations.

Additionally, children are eligible whose parents were involved in the clean-up of September 11 at Ground Zero and as a result are suffering from long term health problems (specifically, bronchial problems of any degree), died due to their work, are unable to work, and/or forced into early retirement.

Persons who are convicted of or indicted for a felony cannot attain grantee status; scholarship grantees who are convicted of or indicted for a felony during the grant period will be subject to revocation of the scholarship (see: Scholarship Termination).

Grantees are responsible for observing satisfactory academic and professional standards and for maintaining a standard of conduct and integrity that is in keeping with the spirit and intent of the Checkpoint Charlie Foundation and that will contribute positively to the promotion of mutual understanding between the peoples of the United States and Germany.

Though the acceptance of the scholarship is not intended to limit the rights of the grantees to express their views as individuals on political, religious or other subjects, the grantee shall realize that improper use of the name of the Checkpoint Charlie Foundation, the scholarship or either government in this regard must be avoided.

Scholarship Amounts

The amount granted by the City of Berlin Scholarship depends on the tuition and fees of the college/university in combination with the grantees already existing financial aid, is a maximum of 2,500 USD per semester (max. USD 5,000 per year - fall and spring semester OR spring and fall). Scholarship amounts granted that exceed tuition and fees must be promptly reimbursed to the CCF.

The scholarship money will not be granted directly to the student, but rather it will be transferred directly to the college/university.

Grantees are responsible for determining their individual United States income tax liability as resulting from the City of Berlin Scholarship grant.
